THE COST OF THE STRIKE.

PAUL MORTON SAYS IT IS BETWEEN $1,500,000 AND $2,000,000.

While the Strikers Say it is About $4,000,000—Bomb Found in a Freight Car. Burlington Men Responsible for a Wreck. More of Hronek's Bombs Found.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Speaking with reference to the claim made by the Burlington strikers that the strike has cost that road about $4,000,000, Paul Morton said last evening: "That is not so. The strike has cost us lots of money and we expected it would when we refused to accede to the demands of the men. I suppose the strike has cost us between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. They base their estimates upon a comparison between the reports for the first six months of 1887 and 1888.

"A year ago the Burlington did the largest business in its history. Rates were high and there were immense amounts of grain to be transported. This year's business has been dull with all the lines, notwithstanding the fact that our competitors had temporarily a portion of our business. The Rock Island shows a shrinkage of nearly $2,000,000 and the other roads are in the same boat. Our stock has held its own against all attacks and we are now transacting our full share of business. Every one is satisfied with the freight and passenger service that is being rendered, except the men who went on a strike. I am sorry that our success has had the effect of driving them to desperation."

Bomb in a Freight Car.

CHICAGO, July 27.—What is supposed to be a huge bomb was found Wednesday by men engaged in unloading a car of apples, which came from New Albany, Ind. The end of one of the barrels was broken, and on glancing in the men saw what appeared to be a bar of iron in among the apples. When taken out it proved to be a piece of iron pipe, three inches in diameter and sixteen inches in length.

Both ends were plugged with some hard material, apparently asbestos, and from one end projected a charred piece of soft woolly cord, apparently intended for a fuse. It appeared to have been ignited and gone out before reaching the end of the pipe. About the other end was wrapped several thicknesses of sheet copper. The apples came from New Albany over the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago route, and were loaded in a Pennsylvania stock car.

Burlington Employees to Blame.

CHICAGO, July 27.—A collision that narrowly missed resulting in the death of a number of passengers and train hands occurred on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad at the Sixteenth street crossing. Luckily no person was injured, but four cars of Burlington freight train were derailed and a Chicago & Eastern Illinois engine badly mangled. The right of way belonged to the Chicago & Eastern Illinois engine, the Burlington train being blocked by a gate.

Spectators say that no Burlington trainmen were on the rear of the train and that the accident was due entirely to Burlington men. A Grand Trunk passenger train on a parallel track to the Chicago & Eastern Illinois came within a hair's breadth of being wrecked by the overturning Eastern Illinois engine. The damage is estimated at $10,000.

Bad for Hronek and Sevie.

CHICAGO, July 27.—It is stated that since the arrest of Hronek, chief would-be assassin of Gary, Grinnell and Bonfield, the police have made an important discovery by working upon the fears of Hronek's wife. Surprisingly little dynamite was found at Hronek's house at the time of his arrest, the bulk of the contraband goods consisting of bombs in various stages of completion.

The police were convinced that he had access to plenty of dynamite, and when the subject was properly presented to Mrs. Hronek, she led the way to the basement of the building in which Sevie's shop is, and to the delight of the officers, who allowed her to do the searching, returned to the open air with a market basket full of half pound sticks of the stuff. There were fully ten pounds of it, enough to have blown the whole neighborhood skyward. It is said that Sevie, as well as Hronek, knew where the dynamite was concealed.

WASHINGTON.

Congressman Hopkins Insane—The President Goes Fishing.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The condition of Congressman Stephen S. Hopkins, representing the Twentieth New York district, has at last reached the stage that his brother has been compelled to remove him from Washington, and the unhappy details of his eccentric conduct can no longer be concealed. It is difficult to explain them by any other than that his mind has become seriously affected.

At the club his membership was canceled. On a recent Sunday he told friends that one of his sons was dangerously ill, as that moment learned by telegram. Mr. Stewart, of the club, thereupon cashed a check for a considerable amount, which was also returned unpaid. In spite of his habits and eccentricities Hopkins was popular with his colleagues. He is a good natured, hospitable man of about forty.

Off For Bath Beach.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The president, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Folsom, Postmaster General Dickinson and Col. Lamont drove to the Baltimore & Potomac station just before 11 o'clock, and boarded the 11 o'clock New York express, en route for Jersey City.

On arriving there the party will separate, the ladies going to Marion, Mass., where Mrs. Cleveland spent part of last season. The rest of the party will put to sea on a yacht for a fishing trip.

It is expected that they will make their headquarters at Bath Beach, L. I., where the wife of Postmaster General Dickinson is summering.

The president, the postmaster general and Col. Lamont are expected to return to Washington between Saturday evening and Monday morning. Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Folsom expect to remain at Marion for some time.

Sporting Notes.

Pat Killen has arranged for a match with Jake Kilrain to fight for $5,000 a side. George Gaylor knocked out James Baillif at Indianapolis in four rounds, last night, with gloves.

Winners at Brighton Beach races: Dago, Adolph, Frolic, Rebellion, Supervisor and Sam Harper.

The Detroit base ball club has bought Larocque, second baseman of the Lynn, Mass., club, for $500.

WEDNESDAY'S BASE BALL.—Washington 3, Philadelphia 1; Indianapolis 6, Chicago 4; Baltimore 2, St. Louis 5.

Annie May, Carus, Rambler, Carnot, Steve Jerome and Bootjack were first in the Chicago races Wednesday.

Tom Ramsey, the Louisville pitcher, was locked up Wednesday night on writs sworn out by saloonkeepers for debts.

Con Riley, the Middletown pugilist, says he has been matched to fight Jack Wannup, the English pugilist and wrestler.

Edward Corrigan, the horseman, has been arrested for his assault with a loaded cane upon a spectator at the Chicago races.

George E. Andrews, center fielder of the Philadelphia club, was married Wednesday night to Miss Ethel Kirby, of Philadelphia.

Manager Barrie, of the Baltimore base ball club, has put admission down to twenty-five cents. Tickets are sold at different places in the city.

Detroit leads in the league championship race, with New York second and Chicago third. There are only two games difference between the three leaders.

"Swipes," the New York newsboy, was defeated in a twenty-two round fight with Jack Delaney, of Brooklyn, near New York. "Swipes" was blinded and could not continue the fight.

Saratoga Races.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 27.—To-day is the second regular day of the summer race meeting. The weather is fine and the track is in good condition.

The first race, flash stakes, for two-year-olds; half a mile: Princess Bowling first, Servia second, Diablo third. Time 0:50 1-4.

Fourth race, six furlongs: Badge first, Lelox second, Stotun third. Time 1:16.

Type-Writing Contest.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—The first professional type-writing contest in this country, at Graham's Phonographic academy, between Louis Traub, of this city, and Frank E. McGurrian, of Salt Lake City, Utah, resulted in a victory for the visitor. The match was for $500. At the end of the contest, which lasted one hour and a half, McGurrian had written from dictation 4,294 words, or 95.55 words per minute; from copying 4,415 words, or 98.11 words per minute, making a total of 8,709 words. Mr. Traub wrote from dictation 3,747 words, or 83.26 per minute; from copying 3,191 words, or 70.91 per minute, his total being 6,938 words. Mr. McGurrian beats Traub on the whole time 1,771 words, or 25.38 per cent.

Battle With Tramps.

ASHTABULA, O., July 27.—A gang of tramps that had made their headquarters in the woods near here was attacked by the local police on Monday, but most of them got away. Those that escaped were armed with revolvers, and on Monday night they attacked the conductor of a local freight on the Lake Shore railway, and compelled him to take them aboard. They broke open a car and stole a keg of beer, and when near Geneva escaped. On Tuesday they attacked a farmer, firing into his house and committing other depredations. A company of militia was sent from here Wednesday to suppress the tramps, and after a sharp battle nineteen of the gang were captured.

A Diver's Work.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 27.—The body of Miss Sophia Clemens, who was drowned up the bay yesterday, was recovered by a diver and brought here this morning. The diver went down and adjusted a rope to raise the boat and found the body of the woman in the cabin. The boat was raised and brought here. On arrival here, the body was taken from the cabin and carried to the morgue, where the medical examiner decided the woman came to her death by accidental drowning.

Missing Navy Officer.

BROOKLYN, July 27.—Lieut. Henry W. Schaeffer, U. S. N., is missing. He obtained four days leave of absence last Wednesday to visit his family at Rockville, Md., previous to the departure of his vessel, the Swatara, which is on the point of sailing, but telegrams from Rockville say he has not been there. He is thirty-seven years old, five feet seven inches tall, and of sandy complexion.

They Want a Deep Water Harbor.

DENVER, Col., July 27.—The chamber of commerce has requested Governor Adams to call a convention of western states here, August 28, to consider the feasibility of securing a deep water harbor on the Texas coast.

An Outlaw Released by Friends.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 27.—A few days since Sam. Osborn, a well known character of eastern Kentucky, caused the arrest of Gen. Souders, a noted outlaw, and had the latter put in the Tazewell, Tenn., jail. Report from that place is to the effect that an armed body of men from near Pineville, Ky., Tuesday night overpowered the jailer and rescued Souders. Osborn and Souders are both bold, dangerous men, and have threatened each other. They have many warm adherents, and trouble is sure to follow.

Terrible Death of a Young Girl.

ENR, Pa., July 27.—A terrible fate befell Miss Nellie Gibson as she was returning from a picnic. She and her escort, Mr. John Brown, seated in a buggy, were returning from Massasauga Point. Meeting a hack, the driver, Charles Murray, took the wrong side of the road and ran into the buggy. The pole of the hack struck Miss Gibson in the abdomen, almost disemboweling her. She lingered in great agony for several hours, when she died.

THE MILITARY COUNCIL

OF THE PATRIARCHS MILITANT IN CINCINNATI

Complete Their Secret Business and the Remainder of the Week is Given to Sight Seeing and Pleasure Seeking—The Street Parade a Grand One.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—The forenoon was devoted to finishing the business of the canton and battalion drill at the campus. The decoration of chivalry was conferred upon sixteen candidates between the acts of "The Fall of Babylon" Wednesday night. At Music hall in the sword competition for officers, Capt. C. C. Crabb and Lieut. Hudson, of Canton Excelsior, Chicago, won first and second prize, and William Sharp, of Excelsior; Thomas Furrington, Occidental, and George Sheelock, Excelsior, all of Chicago, was first, second and third prizes respectively for chivalry.

The military council finished its secret business Wednesday, which now awaits final action by the sovereign grand lodge. The grand lodge of Ohio and the grand encampment held final sessions at the temple during the morning, conferring past grand and encampment degrees. This, with the parade of the day, finished the formal business of the cantonment.

The grand street parade started at 5 o'clock prompt, and was one of the finest ever seen in this city. The Odd Fellows, especially the Patriarchs Militant, who form the principal attraction of the parade, were all in the city before noon. There were probably 3,000 Odd Fellows in the city and the majority of them took part in the grand demonstration. There are a great many visitors to the city of this class, principally from Ohio, attracted by the meeting of the Ohio grand lodge.

The preliminary arrangements for the parade began early, and long before noon the music of fife and drum was heard in many streets, as the various cantons marched to their places of assembling. The work of forming in line of parade was set for 3 o'clock.

The first division comprised all troops not in the Ohio jurisdiction, commanded by Maj. Gen. E. E. Phelps, of Illinois. The second division, all Ohio troops, was commanded by Maj. Gen. I. G. Reeves, of Lancaster.

These two divisions, forming the Militant line, were commanded by Maj. Gen. Cushman.

The third division was composed of ununiformed Odd Fellows.

Friday and Saturday will be given up entirely to sight-seeing and pleasure seeking, with the awards of prizes Saturday afternoon, in front of the government building.

A LARGE SUIT.

Ives, Stayner and Meyers Sued by Albert Netter.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—Albert Netter Wednesday afternoon sued Henry S. Ives, Christopher Meyers and W. B. Stayner for $80,000. He declares that he and the defendants bought 30,000 shares common Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad stock, and that the defendants bought him out for $250,000. Of this they only paid him $170,000 hence his suit.

An attachment was made against 6,500 shares of stock held in the names of Henry A. Shoemaker, John C. Meyer, James Desher and J. C. Evans. This stock, it is claimed, belongs to Christopher Meyer, who is one of the defendants in the suit. The suit is apparently a scheme of Netter, Ives and Stayner to get possession of the stock belonging Meyer. Ives and Stayner are parties to the suit, but as neither owns anything it is plainly inoperative against them.

Henry S. Ives and George H. Stayner left the city very quietly on a fast Pennsylvania train at 4:25 p. m., Wednesday. Their departure was somewhat of a surprise, as it was expected that they would remain for three or four days at least. Assistant County Prosecutor Dick Ermonston received a telegram, Wednesday, from Prosecutor Pugh to the effect that the bonds of Ives and Stayner should not be less than $10,000 each.

From that it was inferred that the bonds that had been given would be satisfactory to the prosecutor, and Mr. Ermonston so stated to Judge Schroder. This relieved Miller Outcalt from the guarantee that the defendant should be produced in court whenever Prosecutor Pugh desired to be heard as to the size of the bonds, and left Ives and Stayner free to leave the city whenever they chose to do so.

Their cases will be set for trial in September.

CAUSED BY JEALOUSY.

A Young Man Commits a Double Murder and Then Suicides.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 27.—In the employ of John Lamont, three miles east of Dryden village, was a pretty girl, aged nineteen, named Jennie Rote. A farm hand named Dutton had been paying considerable attention to the young woman, but she refused his advances, which made him angry and jealous of Lamont. A few days ago Dutton stated to a neighbor that if Lamont did not cease his attentions to Miss Rote he would make trouble, and perhaps a job for the corner.

Last evening young Dutton went to the Lamont farm. As he entered the premises Lamont appeared with a pistol, and walking up to Dutton the latter fired, the ball passing into the lungs. Lamont fell mortally wounded. The murderer, with his smoking pistol, went to the house and fired at Miss Rote, inflicting a fatal wound. The shooting attracted the neighbors, who organized a posse and started in pursuit of the murderer.

LATER—It is now learned that the young farmer, Lamont, who was shot last night by Dutton, was not seriously hurt. The young girl, Ida Rote, who was also shot at the same time, it is said, will recover. Although the girl was shot four times none of the bullets struck a vital part.

MONTREAL, July 27.—Four sons of Mr. Vandeville, of Boston, aged six, eight, ten and twelve years respectively, were drowned here on Tuesday while playing on some logs in the Lacombe river. The bodies were recovered and buried here.

THE STRAIN WAS TOO GREAT.

The Floor of an Old Armory in New York Gives Way—One Girl Killed.

NEW YORK, July 27.—An old armory at Elm and White streets has been used for commercial purposes for some years though still owned by the city. Wednesday afternoon the gallery along thirty two feet of one side of the building collapsed and fell, carrying down with it five folding-machines and about fifty girls and women. Over two hundred girls and women were at work at the time in the building, and they fled panic stricken to the street. Effort was at once made to get out those confined in the ruins. Women were shrieking and fainting and shrieks and moans of pain and fright came from the wreck. Blocks were rigged up and the work of removal began.

The ground floor was occupied by John Simmons' iron pipe dealer, and the main hall by the McWilliams Printing company. The Lovell Manufacturing company book printers and binders occupied a wide gallery around the hall fifteen feet from the floor. In the gallery were the five heavy folding machines and tons upon tons of printed matter. The gallery was supported by wooden uprights, resting upon the floor of the hall. Under this hung heavy iron pipes in stock. The double strain had reached the breaking point and the northeast part of the gallery had fallen. The five heavy folding machines sank through the floor of the hall. The floor yielded and the mass crushed through to the ground floor.

Six girls who had been working at the machines went down in the wreck all the way to the ground floor. The rest managed to escape. Two of the six girls were uninjured, though badly frightened. Mary Bagwell, of Brooklyn, lay dead, her hands clutching a piece of the sheet she was holding when the crash came. The other girls had fallen in such a way that the debris formed an arch over their heads. They were unhurt. The sixth, Mrs. Mary McDonald, was badly bruised about one leg. She was taken home. The machines which fell were valued at $4,000.

Hiram Sibley's Will.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 27.—The will of the late Hiram Sibley has been probated.

The value of the estate is not specified, but on good authority it is stated to be $10,000,000 in real estate, railroad bonds and bank stock. The will leaves the testator's residence, valued at $200,000, to Mrs. Sibley, with an allowance of $24,000 a year. Two nieces, Mrs. Smith and Miss Atkinson, get $50,000 in cash when of age. Cornell university gets $30,000, and two nephews get the land on which they have been living. The residue of the estate is to be divided by the executors, Mrs. Sibley, a daughter named Mrs. Averill, Hiram W. Sibley, a son, and Robert F. Atkinson, a son-in-law, among his legal heirs according to the law of descent as now in force in this state. This gives Hiram W. Sibley something over $6,000,000.

Battle Ship Contracts Awarded.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Contracts for furnishing steel for the armored battle ship Texas, to be built at Norfolk, Va., were today awarded as follows: Park Brothers & Company, of Pittsburgh, 950 tons of steel plates, $66,770; Carnegie, Phipps & Company, of Pittsburgh, 503 tons of steel shapes, $43,266, and 100 tons of rivets, $8,601, and the Standard Steel Casting company, of Thurlow, Pa., 120 tons of steel castings, $41,664.

COLORED POLITICIANS

Held a Lively Convention in Indianapolis.

"Razors in the Air."

INDIANAPOLIS, July 27.—The colored convention held here Wednesday was one of the spiciest things in its way that ever visited the capital city.

About fifty representatives from outside and some local politicians met in the Hendricks club rooms. J. Milton Turner called the meeting to order. Grover Cleveland was unanimously endorsed.

Noah Plummer, of Massachusetts, was appointed temporary secretary, and the rest of the morning was taken up in a wrangle over a motion for the appointment of a committee on permanent organization. The chairman could not silence the squabblers, and even the sergeant-at-arms was powerless.

Peter H. Clark, a refined and educated colored gentleman of Cincinnati, made an appeal that commanded respectful attention. The fun began at the afternoon session between the friends of Turner and those of Clark, candidates for office of permanent chairman. Speeches were made by Taylor, of Kansas City, and Fortune, of New York, reflecting severely on Turner's lack of fidelity to the Democracy. Turner responded hotly, and the meeting resolved itself into a wild, free-for-all war of words. Clark grew disgusted and peremptorily withdrew his name, but was afterward persuaded to let it stand.

The first ballot was announced to be a tie, 32 to 32, whereupon a wild cry of "fraud" was raised, and during the confusion that followed Oglesby, of Columbus, received a blow in the face and drew a revolver upon Plummer. They were immediately sat upon by the convention, which began to realize that it was time to simmer down. They simmered accordingly, succeeded in electing Peter H. Clark to the disputed office and adjourned for the night.

Alive, Though He Fell 100 Feet.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—Joseph Simpson, an employe of the Phoenix Bridge company, was working on the new bridge across the Ohio, Wednesday, and was on top of the iron work, over one hundred feet above the river, when he missed his footing and fell, crashing down through the false work to the bottom of the river. When he reappeared he was seized and placed in a skiff by fellow workmen. He was taken to the Covington hospital, where his condition is not considered dangerous. Internal injuries are feared.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

FRIDAY EVEN'G, JULY 27, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
 of New York.

For Vice President,
ALLAN G. THURMAN,
 of Ohio.

AUGUST ELECTION, 1888.
 For Sheriff,
JOHN W. ALEXANDER.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District: I beg leave to submit to you my name in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. I have no claims to urge over those of any other true Democrat, and make my announcement with some degree of timidity. I hope to make the primary contest in such a manner as not to create dissension or division in the ranks of the party, and, whether I lose or win the nomination, I propose to remain the same unflinching Democrat I have always been. Respectfully,
 G. R. KELLAR.
 Carlisle, Ky., July 17, 1888.

They are having an exciting race for Sheriff over in Bath. There are three candidates in the field.

The Senate passed 127 pension bills in fifty minutes a few days ago. No wonder the President has to veto so many of them.

How will the "temperance" Republicans like to vote for Harrison and Morton on a cheap-pipes-and-free-whisky platform?

STAY-AT-HOME voters never do their party any good, and we want to see every Democrat do his duty on the first Monday in August.

DOVER Democrats will organize a club to-morrow afternoon. The News thinks they will have the banner club of the county, if they will put in their best ticks.

The Lexington Leader is a little mixed on the geography of Kentucky. Hodgenville is not in Lewis County. At least the people up there are not aware of it, if it is.

A DEMOCRATIC primary in Montgomery County resulted in the nomination of Mat A. Scott for Circuit Clerk by a majority of one vote. That's what might be called a "close shave."

The work of organizing campaign clubs should be continued with vigor by the Democrats of Mason County. Every vote should be brought out at the coming elections, and this can best be done by organization.

The Democrats have no hope of carrying Cleveland, O., and there is danger of their losing Thurman, Mo.—Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.

Perhaps. But you can bet your bottom dollar that they will carry Harrison County, Ky., and Mortonville in Woodford County.—Georgetown Times.

The Republicans of the Tenth Kentucky district will hold their Congressional convention at Campton, Wolfe County, August 29th. The Prohibitionists will hold their convention at Prestonburg August 21st, and the Democrats will meet at Winchester August 22nd.

Hon. ROGER Q. MILLS, author of the Mills bill, says: "Free raw materials make low cost of production; low products make increase of markets; increase of markets makes increased demand for goods, and increased demand for goods makes increased demand for employment, and increased demand for employment makes increase of wages."

The colored brother seems to be taking a more active part in politics this year than in any previous campaign. He is in a measure getting over his blind faith in the Republican party, and is beginning to think for himself. A few years ago a Democratic club of colored voters was unknown; now they are springing up everywhere.—Louisville Post.

The Dover News is correct when it says: "John W. Alexander is the unanimous choice of the county Democracy for Sheriff, and in view of this fact there isn't a Democrat in Mason County that does not owe Mr. Alexander a vote. The time to pay their debt is the August election, and the place is at the polls, and the Democrat who does not come and cast his vote is not keeping faith with his party."

In 1868, the Republicans had the following plank in their platform:

It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the National faith will permit.

There is less reason for high taxation to-day than there was in 1868, but the Republicans declare in favor of free whisky in preference to reforming the tariff and reducing taxes on the necessities of life. Will the poor man vote for such a party?

Ask Your Protectionist Friend.

Why a million men have been out of work under "protective tariff?"

Why Pennsylvania miners lost 128 days work in 1884, and 111 days work in 1885?

Why some of those miners only got $20 a month, and pay out of that $2.50 for tools, powder, etc.?

Why some Pennsylvania laborers work for 50 cents a day?

Why he (the protectionist) talks of child labor in England, when slate pickers, 7 to 16 years old, are working in the Pennsylvania coal regions?

Why Pennsylvania operatives pay $5 a month for company houses, when English operatives get a cottage for $30 a year?

Why cotton operatives in some of the New England States work 66 to 69 hours a week, while English operatives work 59 hours a week?

Why blankets are taxed 77 per cent, and lace only 30?

Why labor is forced to protect itself by labor organizations, when it is already protected by the tariff?

The above are questions propounded by Ralph Beaumont, in a Knights of Labor meeting. Mr. Beaumont added: "For twenty-five years we have had this protection, and we have made more millionaires and more paupers under that system than were ever made in a civilized country on the earth in the same time."

A LEAP TO DEATH.

Jacob Bamman, of New Richmond, Jumps from the Steamer St. Lawrence, and is Drowned.

The landing at Cincinnati was the scene of a suicide last night that caused considerable excitement on the steamer St. Lawrence.

About 11 o'clock, shortly before the regular time for the boat's departure for this city, a gentleman entered the cabin and secured a ticket for New Richmond. He registered as Jacob Bamman, of that city. He went to his stateroom, and removed his coat, after which he was seen to walk to the stern of the steamer. Some lady passengers were sitting near by, and they were suddenly startled by Bamman's leaping into the river. The alarm was at once given, but the unfortunate man sank to a watery grave before any one could reach him.

Bamman is a well-to-do citizen of New Richmond, and was the owner of the most elegant residence at that place. He had made a previous attempt to take his life.

The B. E. Club.

The B. E. Club, of Fern Leaf, was entertained by Miss Lillie E. Smoot last evening at the hospitable home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Smoot. A large crowd was present and the meeting was an enjoyable one throughout. Among the guests were: Misses Mattie and Ella Dudley, of Flemingsburg; Sallie Perrie, Ella Downing, Lizzie Downing and Sallie Wood, of Maysville; Mary Clay, of Paris; Florence Lonmore, of Covington; Mamie White, of Orangeburg; Alma Osborne, Jennie Holton, Sue Pickett, Lida Bacon, Bird Bacon, Retta Smoot and Mattie Boulden, of Tackahoe; Lottie Perrine, of "Pleasant Hill"; Mary Hall, of "Rose Hill"; Minta Smoot, of Maysville, and Gertrude Worthington, of Fern Leaf.

The young gentlemen present were: Messrs. Perrine Jenkins, Stockton Wood, James Martin, C. O. McDougle and Charlie Burgess, of this city; Claude Black, of Covington; Harry Walker and Ben Cave, of Dayton; A. B. McAtee, G. A. Slack, J. M. Evans, Charlie Asbury, C. C. Slack, Elgin Smoot and Louis Smoot, of Fern Leaf; Charles Osborne, Dick Holton, Gill Smoot and Lank Bacon, of Tackahoe, and Orea Pickett, of Illinois.

An elegant supper was served at 12 o'clock, the guests taking their departure two hours later.

Stock, Field and Farm.

Mr. Basil D. Owens, of "Crab Orchard Farm," had five acres of wheat that yielded 46 bushels to the acre. Mr. William McClelland, of Lewisburg, had eleven acres that also averaged that much.

The crop reports from all parts of the county are very encouraging. Corn gives promise of a magnificent yield, the hemp is not very thick on the ground but it will be tall and the acreage is large and the tobacco crop is growing off finely, and if we have a late fall the last planting will get through all right.—Winchester Sun.

Mr. Fred Meilke, a German farmer living near this city, made 400 bushels of wheat on twelve acres of land that was considered worn out three years ago. More such farmers as this is what Christian County needs.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Bell Boy, by Electioneer, lately purchased from S. A. Brown & Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for $35,000, will be sold at auction on July 31. He was bought by Jefferson & Seaman, of Lexington, and they have been offered nearly as much for a third interest as they gave for the whole. Jefferson felt that he could not afford to hold him at that price, and Mr. Seaman, not wanting to sell, it was agreed that he should be sold at auction and Mr. Seaman might bid on him. His book showed 30 outside mares booked at $500 each for the season of 1889. With a month's training he showed a mile in 2:39, last quarter in 33 1/4 seconds. His owners think he will trot in 2:17 this fall and he is only 3-years-old.—Exchange.

This fine stallion is entered in the Central Hotel stakes to be trotted at the approaching Maysville Fair. He is one of the most promising three-year-olds in the country.

Peacock Coal.

To Whom it May Concern: This is to certify that Mr. William Wormald has secured the exclusive sale for Maysville, Ky., of the genuine Peacock coal, mined from the original and only Peacock mine. All other dealers claiming to sell the same are imposters and misrepresent the truth. Respectfully,

PEACOCK COAL COMPANY.

A Big Fish.

A cat-fish weighing one hundred and fifteen pounds was caught this week in the Ohio near the mouth of Three-Mile Creek by Miles Helm. The BULLETIN'S Aberdeen correspondent vouches for the truth of this statement.

JAMES W. JOHNSON and Miss Cordie B. Cooper, of Fleming County, arrived last evening and, crossing to Aberdeen, were married by 'Squire Beasley. The attendants were: Miss Bertie Smith and Mr. John McIntyre, and Miss Lucy Moore and Mr. J. T. Smart, all of Johnson Junction. The party were guests of European Hotel last night and this morning, and left on the noon train for home.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.—The Louisville Branch Office, of Kentucky and Tennessee, Roe & Lyon, managers, have sent forward applications amounting to $2,298,000 for the current half year, against $1,412,500 for the corresponding period of 1887, a gain of $885,500 or 63 per cent. The gain at the Home Office, in the entire business of the Equitable is about $15,000,000 indicating a new business of $175,000,000 in 1888 against $138,000,000 for last year.

The Equitable is the largest, strongest and most prosperous, great Mutual Life Insurance Company in the World. J. Dudley Smith, General Agent, in connection with Jos. F. Brodrick, Local Agent, represent the Equitable in Maysville, and will be pleased to furnish you a full explanation of the "Free Tontine" policy recently devised by the Equitable.

THE Lexington Leader says: "The Maysville Republican in its latest issue announces that the Maysville Republican Newspaper and Steam Printing Establishment, together with every description of property thereunto belonging, including subscription list to newspaper and all accounts on the books, has been transferred to Thomas A. Davis by Hawthorne Hill, to whom Mr. Davis sold out some months ago. Mr. Davis was for a time telegraph editor and foreman of the Kentucky Leader, but ill-health and business complications, growing out of the assignment of Mr. Hill, led him to resign his position and return to his old home in Maysville. While in Lexington Mr. Davis made hosts of friends within and without the newspaper profession, and fully sustained the reputation that preceded him—that of being one of the very best printers and newspaper men in Kentucky. The Leader regrets to lose Mr. Davis, and wishes him success in his old field of labor."

Orators whose eloquence would bring tears to the eyes of a potato will be present, and discuss the leading questions of the day.

"Well, I swan to gracious!" "Did you ever see such another fish?" "No nor anybody else." The cause of these remarks was the big minnow caught by Miles Helm three miles below Aberdeen and on exhibition at the Second street meat shop Wednesday, where the turnstile at the entrance marked under 3,000 visitors per hour to see the monster leviathan. It's weight was 115 pounds, and was of the Cat variety. Its head was large enough to make a good opening for the Mammoth Cave. This story is not soaly so you can take a full sized dose. It is genuine facts.

Chat About Ladies' Fashions.

[New York Graphic.]

Broad-brimmed Leghorn flats, trimmed with heavy wreaths of white flowers and green wreaths, are worn by little girls of seven years and under.

Chantilly lace, called imitation lace, is a misnomer. It is an imitation of the handiwork, but none of the material, they being identically the same, these laces being made by machine instead of by hand.

Black lace over white surah is beautifully combined, with jet ornaments set on the side of the white skirt where the full lace draperies fall apart. Blue, corn-color, pink, violet or apple-green look equally well.

The blouse waist, worn by the matron, maid and young children, is made of white India or surah silk, the latter preferable. This is an ever ready garment, with black velvet belt fastened with silver buckle. It can be worn with any skirt.

A lady's wardrobe is not considered complete without a black lace dress, it having taken the place of the black silk of the grandmother days. And who does not remember with what care that same black silk was brushed and carefully put away after having done duty at a christening, marriage and burial? Somehow the whole atmosphere of the house took on, as it were, a religious tone. We spoke in subdued whispers as the stiff silk rustled past us.
